

Student Centric Learning

GOVERNMENT COLLEGE NEDUMANGAD

UNDER GOVERNMENT OF KERALA
NEDUMANGAD, THIRUVANANTHAPURAM, KERALA- 695541
*Accredited by NAAC with 'B' Grade

Experiential, Participative and Problem Solving Methodologies

The college adherence to various Experiential , participative and problem solving teaching methods for effective comprehension on various topics.

Inauguration of Sastrayan (experiential learning)

Exhibition conducted by Department of PCA (Experiential learning)

Participative learning by students of Department of PCA

Interactive discussion organised by the Department of History on the topic Tradition and Modernity in Indian History.

Interactive discussion organised by the Department of History on the topic Tradition and Modernity in Indian History.

Field Visit at Krishnapuram palace, Kayamkulam(Experiential learning about Megalithic culture in kerala)

Field visit at Thanjavur archeological museum.(Department of History -Experiential learning)

Debate organised by Debate club.
(Participative learning)

Special lecture conducted on the topic Difference reduction an area in Problem solving methodologies.

Role-play organised by Department of English

Orientation class conducted by Kochousep Chittilappilli, industrialist and managing director of V-guard industries.

ICT enabled classroom- Department of Malayalam.

Dr. RVG Menon Inaugurating the Seminar on Environmental Perception in Art, Literature and Culture Conducted by the Department of Malayalam