Human and Universal Values & Professional Ethics

Awareness on human values, rights, duties and responsibilities among students and staff members is important in today's scenario. The institution takes all efforts to ensure that such values are instilled in the student as well as staff members through various programmes taken up by cells/clubs/committees. The National Service Scheme, NCC, History club, Womens cell, committee against sexual harassment and Jeevani counselling centre initiates programmes for sensitizing students and staff members in areas of constitutional obligations and human values and rights. Value based policies, departmental ethics, code of conduct etc. Walk-With-a Scholar and Scholar Support Programme, initiatives of Higher Education, give external mentoring session based on the values, rights and responsibilities to be held in society. The college furnishes the procedure about the scholarships to the students belonging to the economic backward community. NSS units motivates the students to offer a helping hand to disabled, bedridden, having severe illness, orphans etc. through its Palliative Care initiatives. NCC motivates students to embrace the feelings of patriotism and participates in various activities. Programmes on environmental protection, reforestation etc are periodically conducted by the nature club etc for ensuring the responsibility of our students in protecting nature

The institute documents a properly scheduled code of ethics to ensure the practice of universal and professional values inside the campus, as follows.

- Examination Ethics: Hall ticket duly verified by an authorized person appear for every examination. Use of mobile phone was restricted in the exam hall. mobile inspection squad available on each and the examination hours. Any attempts to copy, cheat or disturb during examination will not be tolerated and d will be taken against the guilty.
- Research Ethics: Original research concepts and ideology are promoted by the research council. Research Guides are expected to abide by the research regulation in the college. While submitting an article, collaborators and acknowledgment of all funding included in the manuscript. It provides rules to avoid plagiarism, data and misleading facts in articles, manuscript proceedings, etc.
- Plagiarism Policy: Ethics and honesty are inherent in all academic, teaching or research. Practices such as claiming credit and ideas of others knowingly or unknowingly spirit and ethos of research. Unethical practice to the academic atmosphere and reputation of individuals.
- Students' Handbook: Every student is expected to follow the codes printed in the handbook which is communicated students during orientation programmes, and a Faculty Handbook: The roles and responsibilities of each faculty as a booklet was circulated to all department.
