

GUIDELINES FOR PEER REVIEWERS

- As far as possible return the articles submitted for review within seven days of the date of receipt.
- The articles submitted are subject to blind review.
- The reviewers should edit the articles and do the necessary corrections to make them error free.
- Make sure that the articles strictly follow the standard format and style accepted by the journal.
- Relevant ideas and concepts may be included.
- Care should be taken to assure that there are no controversial remarks in the articles that are against political correctness or academic integrity.
- Kindly clarify if the articles may be modified and resubmitted or summarily rejected.
